Merciful God, we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart.
We have failed to be an obedient church. We have not done your will,
We have broken your law, we have rebelled against your love,
We have not loved our neighbors, and we have not heard the cry of the needy.
Forgive us, we pray. Free us for joyful obedience,
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

World Communion Sunday

Today we celebrate World Communion Sunday. The choir anthem, composed in 2000 by Mary Nelson Keithan and John D. Horman, is an original composition written for World Communion Sunday. A joyful, dance-like tune is paired with the following text:

Come to the table, hands now extend.
Welcome a stranger, greet a new friend.
Open your circle, let it expand.
Welcome God's children from far away lands.

See on the table, set in Christ's name,
Signs of the suffering love overcame:
Cup of sweet wine and loaf of fine bread.
All things are ready, so come and be fed.

Eat and be thankful, lift up your praise,
God has forgiven your selfish ways.
Go from the table, go forth to share,
In every land the love you find there.
