The Anthem Little Grey Donkey Natalie Sleeth
The Children's Choir with organ and Miriam Marchetti, piano

Little grey donkey, Ho.

Do you know just who it is you carry on your back?

"Tis no ordinary load, no mean or common pack.

You are blessed of all beasts to carry into town

Christ the Lord of Gallilee; He wears no earthly crown.

Once you were a simple beast of poor and lowly state.
Christ himself hath chosen you and honored is your fate.
Though your path with palm is spread, make haste along the way;
You were destined here to ride on this triumphal day.

Yonder is a grassy hill; it's known as Calvary.
Up against the cloudless sky a barren cross you see.
Little grey donkey, little grey mare, don't hide your head in shame.
For you bear the Lamb of God, and Jesus is His Name.

The Anthem We Sang Our Glad Hosannas Keithahn/Horman
The Sanctuary Choir and the Children's Choir

We sang our glad hosannas and waved our branches high,
But some were silent, frowning, and Jesus rode on by.
They sought a royal Savior but did not understand
A king could rule by loving instead of by command.

We heard an angry Jesus in Temple courts declare,
"Be gone, you money changers! This is a house of prayer."
Though many came for healing and stayed to hear his word,
Still others, hostile, plotted and thus his death assured.

We serve him at the table with wine, unleavened bread.
"The one who will betray me now eats with me," he said.
His friends would not believe him, but one by one that night,
As soldiers came to take him, they scurried out of sight.

We saw a suffering Jesus, alone without a friend,
And heard the voices shouting abuse until the end.
We wept as we stood watching Love's light grow dim and die,
And cried, "Why did this happen?" God tell us, why!
