A heart both clean and good.*

And while we sweetly slumber,
Enfold us one and all.*

2012 Spring Upcoming Bible Study

At the Crossroads: Science, Theology, and Art!

“Discovering a Cosmology of Our Time”

At the point where Science, Theology, and Art intersect, a relevant perspective on our time can emerge, a cosmology can be discerned. This Bible Study will explore the seemingly divergent perspectives of science, theology, and art, and seek to discern a point where the union of the three create a vision of Christ that offers the reality of God’s hope and love in the world. To register and for other information about this class, call Rev. Fall at 987-1852 x-27 or email Rev. Fall at refall2009@gmail.com. Handouts about this class are available at each entry.
